

Wake County Historical Society Membership Form

The Wake County Historical Society invites you to become a member. You can attend interesting programs on local and state history, celebrate with us at our annual holiday party and at the annual meeting and dinner, participate in projects ranging from placing historic markers to initiating efforts to save historic sites. You will learn more about your community and meet others who share your enthusiasm for history.

Print and complete the membership application form, and send it with your dues to:
